The Rainbow Fish Story Reflection

Story by Marcus Pfister

This story is about sharing and being nice to our friends even if they are different than us. In this activity, complete or answer the sentences.

How did the Rainbow Fish share?

Why was it important for the Rainbow Fish to share?

I know I am nice and I share when I...

KEY:

1. The Rainbow Fish shared by giving some of his scales away to help those around him.
2. It was important because if the fish did not decide to share, he would not have had any friends because at first his was selfish.
3. As long as the student answers this question with the correct context in regard to sharing, it is correct.
