

Reading Specialist Program

Ability for Completers to be Hired

All students who graduated in 2022-2023 (N=4) continued or obtained employment in positions for which they were prepared. They all remained in education. Three students serve as classroom teachers and one student serves as a district literacy coach and curriculum specialist. One student began in an Ed.D. in Educational Leadership program at ETSU. One graduate began teaching undergraduate literacy courses as an adjunct instructor at ETSU.
