12:00 PM - 1:15 PM

Dr. Shuling Yang

Assistant Professor, Department of Curriculum and Instruction

Clemmer College of Education and Human Development provides a financial incentive program for Summer Research Assignments (SRAs) so recipients can focus on research and scholarly activity rather than teaching in the summer. Please Join our first group of SRA recipients as they share their research experience, progress, and plans to continue their scholarly efforts. The second group of recipients will present on April 3rd at 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM.
