IMPORTANT: SAP appeals are reviewed by Committee according to the published Appeals Review Committee Schedule. Please visit the Appeals Committee Schedule for meeting dates. All Appeal decisions will be sent to your ETSU email account.

- Appeals must be received before the end of the semester for which you are appealing. Appeals received after the end of the semester will be considered for your next period of enrollment.

If your SAP eligibility is approved in SAP probation status, all classes must be taken at ETSU for you to comply with the requirements of that status.

EXCLUSIONS (The following situations are NOT grounds for an appeal)

- Past Due Account Balance—An appeal is not a substitute for keeping a student account paid and current. A student is responsible for charges and payments to his/her account.
- Non-attendance and/or Poor Academic Progress—The appeal process is for those students who are academically engaged (attended and participated in classes until the time of the event). It is not intended for students in non-attendance, for those who have stopped attending due to personal reasons or change of academic plans, and/or for those with poor academic progress.
- Situations that are Academic in Nature—If the situation regarding your failure to meet the Standards of Academic Progress is directly related to coursework and/or instruction.
- Non-Emergency or Preventative Medical Appointments/Procedures—Routine exams, elective procedures, and preventative care not requiring extended absence or which could have been scheduled without impacting class attendance do not qualify (e.g., pregnancy does not qualify unless complications arose requiring extended absence). Cosmetic procedures do not qualify unless required due to a medical emergency; appropriate documentation indicating that the procedure was needed due to special medical circumstances is required.
