Revised July 23, 2014 to reflect the stipend for VP approved in May 2011

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP

3.1. Eligibility

Full time faculty in tenured, tenure-track, and non-tenure track appointments as defined in the Definition of Faculty policy are eligible to serve on faculty Senate.

3.2. Term of office

The term of office for an elected member of the Senate shall be three (3) years with the exception that the term of the president shall be extended automatically for up to three (3) years to ensure uninterrupted progression into the office of past president. At the end of this extended term of office, the affected school, college, or academic unit shall elect a senator to complete any remaining years of the normal term.

1.3. Representation.

Each college, school, or equivalent academic unit with its own faculty shall be entitled to elect three (3) Senators. Additional Senate members shall be elected by and within the various colleges, schools or equivalent academic units in the following manner:

1. A college, school or equivalent academic unit shall be entitled to one additional representative for every twenty-five (25) faculty members. The number of senators eligible shall be determined from the records of the Office of the Provost based on a three-year rolling average at the beginning of each spring Semester.
2. In the event of a shift of departments or faculty from one college to another, the Senate, with a simple majority vote of the body, can reassess the representation.
 - a. Any college, school or equivalent academic unit with a minimum of five faculty members organized after the adoption of this Constitution shall attain Senate representation in the first Senate election following its organization.

- b. By two-thirds vote of those present at any regularly scheduled meeting, the Senate may grant senatorial representation to divisions or academic units not covered in this section. If a college, school or academic unit loses faculty so as to affect Senate representation, the first position to become vacant will not be filled.

2. The University Libraries shall be entitled to elect at least one (1) senator.

Revised, Feb. 2020 – added that number of senators will be based on a three year rolling average of the faculty census; in the event of a shift of departments, that can be revisited by a simple majority

3.4. Elections

1. Each year, all Senators will be notified of forthcoming vacancies by the Elections Committee. Faculty shall be informed of vacancies by their senators in advance of the election.
2. Present senators from each college/school/unit will serve as election officials.
3. Elections to the Faculty Senate shall be concluded annually by the end of March.
4. When a vacancy occurs from a senator's resigning in mid-term, the president will inform the remaining senators from the relevant college. That college will choose how to select a replacement as defined by the college election procedures to begin serving as soon as possible.

Revised, December 2017 – 4.1.1 -7 (repaired missing language on replacement of senators who resign mid-term).

3.5. Participation

1. Faculty Senators are expected to attend all bi-weekly meetings of the Senate.
2. Those Senators serving on the Executive Committee are also expected to attend the bi-weekly meetings of the Executive Committee on those weeks that the full Senate does not meet.
3. Senators who miss a meeting shall notify the Secretary of the reason for failure to attend.
4. After a Senator misses two meetings in a single semester, the Secretary will send an electronic notification to the Senator. The same will apply to members of the Executive Committee who miss two of the bi-weekly meetings of the Executive Committee (irrespective of attendance at the meetings of the full Senate).
5. After a third absence, the secretary will send a notification to the Senator and the Senator's attendance will be reviewed by the Executive Committee, the results of which will be communicated to the Senator.
6. The Executive Committee will consider the reasons for absenteeism and the review may result in the following:
 - a. No action taken or
 - b. A letter notifying the Senator's Dean of failure to meet obligations and/or
 - c. A request from the executive committee for resignation or formal leave of absence by the absent Senator and/or
 - d. The Executive Committee declaring the absent Senator's seat vacant and initiating the process for filling a vacant seat.

3.6. Leaves of Absence

When necessary, a senator may request an official leave of absence from their Senate duties. Request for a leave of absence must be submitted according to the following procedure:

1. A letter requesting a leave of absence which outlines the reasons for the request and the anticipated length of the leave of absence shall be sent to the president of the Faculty Senate for transmission to the Executive Committee;
2. The Executive Committee shall, by majority vote, either accept or deny the request for leave of absence;
3. In the event that the request for leave of absence is accepted, the President of the Faculty Senate shall instruct the affected school, college or academic unit to select a temporary replacement Senator.
4. The temporary replacement senator shall occupy the seat of the requesting senator until the requesting senator notifies the president of the Faculty Senate in writing that they wish to resume the duties of senator.
5. The maximum length of a leave of absence shall be an academic year.

3.7. Faculty Senate Selection of Faculty Trustee

This shall be the process by which the Faculty representative to the ETSU Board of Trustees (the Board) will be determined:

1. In those years that the faculty trustee position on the Board is open according to HB2578, the floor will open for nominations at the last scheduled Faculty Senate meeting of the fall semester and close on January 31.
 - a. Any interested faculty shall submit a statement of qualifications to the President of the Senate during the nomination period.
 - b. The President of Faculty Senate shall forward all statements of qualifications to the Faculty Senate Executive Committee which will review the eligibility of each candidate by no later than the scheduled meeting of the Senate at which the ballot is created.
 - c. The date of the faculty trustee election may be modified by the Faculty Senate to allow for selection of a Board representative prior to the first annual meeting of the Board.
2. To be eligible for consideration, the potential nominee must have been a full-time faculty member for at least six (6) years and demonstrate satisfactory involvement in university-wide shared governance.
3. A ballot of no more than three (3) and no fewer than two (2) nominees will be created in a Faculty Senate meeting by the end of February.
4. A position on the ballot is secured by being among the top three in a vote by a quorum of the faculty Senate.
 - a. There will be up to three (3) rounds of voting.
 - b. Each Senator may vote only once in each round.
 - c. The top vote-getter in each round earns a position on the ballot. In the event of a tie in any round a coin-toss will break the tie.
 - d. Once a person is placed on the ballot, they may not be considered in subsequent nominee ballot voting.

- e. The Faculty Senate shall vote again until at least two (2) and no more than three (3) nominees are on the ballot.
5. The final ballot will be presented to the Faculty of ETSU for a vote in March.
6. The faculty trustee will be determined by a plurality (person who gets the most votes) in a vote of the faculty. In the event of a tie, a run-off will be held. The person receiving the second most votes will be considered the alternate.
7. If the newly-elected faculty trustee is not currently a member of the Senate, they automatically become an at-large member of the Senate and must remain a member in good standing for the duration of their term. Upon election to the ETSU Board of Trustees, the faculty trustee will become an ex-officio member of the Faculty Senate Executive Committee and will be expected to fulfill the following duties of an Executive Committee member:
 - a. Attend all scheduled meetings of the Faculty Senate Executive Committee
 - b. Attend all scheduled meetings of the Faculty Senate
 - c. Attend all monthly meetings of the Executive Committee and university administration
8. In the event that the faculty trustee is unable to serve, the alternate will fill the remainder of the term.
 - a. If both the elected faculty trustee and the alternate are unable to serve, the Past President will step in to serve as the faculty trustee until a new faculty trustee can be elected to fill the remainder of the term.
 - b. Any out of cycle election will follow the process outlined above but in a timeframe to be determined by the Faculty Senate.
9. The faculty member elected to the ETSU Board of Trustees shall have the term of service limited to two consecutive terms of two years each if they are nominated and elected. Thereafter, the faculty member would become eligible to seek another term only after having remained off the Board for one term.

Revised, November 2018 – to update the timing of the election based on the BOT cycle; to change simple majority to plurality; to provide for an alternate in the event the elected faculty member is unable to serve; to implement a term limit consistent with the limits defined in the FOCUS ACT.

*Revised, March 13, 2017 – see substantive changes document; participation updated
Revised, April 2016*

ARTICLE IV: COMMITTEES

The Senate shall establish standing committees to study and make reports on matters of concern to the University faculty. Standing committees created by the Senate become committees of the Senate, receive their authority from the Senate, and shall report their findings and make their recommendations to the Senate.

4.1. Standing Committees

1. Except for the Executive Committee, the size of standing committees shall be determined by the Senate.

4.1.4. Committee on the Faculty Handbook

1. Committee Leadership and Composition: The Committee on Faculty Handbook shall be chaired by a senator appointed by the Executive Committee. The committee will have a minimum of three and no more than five senators
- 2.. Duties of the Committee: The committee shall be responsible for oversight and disposition of any and all approved revisions to the faculty handbook. Each year, between the last meeting of the spring semester and the first meeting of the fall semester, the committee shall be responsible for verifying all links are active and accurate and that any new information is updated. The committee will also notify the faculty Senate of any changes to the handbook.

*Revised March 13, 2017: See Substantive Changes document for specifics – Standing Committee membership, Executive Committee duties/ membership; Committee on Committees – made language consistent with immediate past president role Revised July 23, 2014 to reflect stipend for Past President approved by Senior Staff on May 25, 2011.
Revised April 2012: On recommendation of the Standing Committee working group and approval of the Senate membership*

4.2. Ad Hoc Committees

1. The Senate shall, from time to time, establish temporary committees to study and make reports on matters of special concern to the University faculty and/or community. Ad hoc committees created by the Senate become committees of the Senate, receive their authority from the Senate, and shall report their findings and make their recommendations to the Senate.
2. Ad hoc committees shall be constituted for periods of one calendar year and are renewable upon a 2/3 vote of the senators present.

Revised, November 2003

4.3. University Standing Committee Membership

1. A Faculty Senate member appointed to a University (i.e., non-Faculty Senate) standing committee serves a three-year term on that committee,
2. At the point a senator serving on a standing university committee as a representative of Faculty Senate is no longer on Faculty Senate, they will cease to serve as the Faculty Senate representative on that committee and the Senate shall appoint or elect a new representative.
3. Senators serving as Faculty Senate representatives on standing university committees should report on the activities of those standing committees to the senate.

Revised Feb, 2020 -Added that at the point a senator who is serving as a senate rep to a university committee is no longer a member of the senate, they will cease to serve on that committee as the senate rep and the senate will appoint/elect a new representative; senators serving as senate reps to committees will report activities of those standing committees to the senate.

ARTICLE V: AMENDMENT PROCEDURE

5.1. Initiation.

The By-Laws may be altered by a procedure begun in either of the following ways: by a petition signed by one-fifth (1/5) of the full-time faculty members; or through a proposal supported by one-third (1/3) of the Faculty Senate members.

5.2. Ratification.

Any amendments shall be ratified by a 2/3 majority of faculty senators voting in an official Senate meeting following the process for motions as noted in the Procedures of the Senate.

Revised, November 2003
